SUCCESSFUL SHOWING

With horse shows swinging into their fall sessions, it is interesting to note what has been bringing out the crowds; what makes for success in the show world. As any good layout man on one of the successful picture magazines will tell you, to attract attention a picture magazine must have variety, a change of pace and a good balance. Horse shows are pretty much the same thing. They are eye fillers for spectators come as what spectators don't, to be amused, interested and in short, entertained, just as the reader of a picture magazine who sits down to look—not to read.

Shows which have been counting on the same performance they have had for 10 years are apt nowadays to come up disappointed. Even such eye filling spectacles as the National at Madison Square Garden or Barnum and Bailey's Circus, spend large sums on developing new entertainment. Their very size will not of itself bring to the spectator the desired change of pace, variety and balance without new ideas.

Take the average two-day show, however, somewhere in the country that has each year been drawing its quota of hunter, jumper and pony classes with an occasional sprinkling of saddle classes for gaited and western horses. The same program year after year, in which the large stables go off with the major share of awards, the public will today get tired of. Some years ago the horse show each year was the big event and horse show committees had a far easier time. Now it is different. If committees do not want to go in the red they have got to scratch their heads and put new feet forward.

Last week in two different sections of the country were two shows which made the most of one of the best strings any horse show has in its bag of tricks. In Wayne, Illinois, the Wayne Pony and Pet Show committee put on an all children show which attracted 606 entries and had everything from a greased pig to really top children's classes. A similar billing, without the greased pig, but with a costume class and a potato race in New Hampshire at North Conway's Eastern Slope Horse Show proved again the importance of children's divisions. In its 9 years of catering to children's classes, North Conway was this year slated to have the biggest list of entries in all its years of activity. The polio scare reduced a big entry list somewhat, but there were more than enough horses and children to provide the desired variety and change of pace for the spectator.

In each case the horsemanship seen was first class. If children are going to compete, and be the principal contenders for riding awards, they should be well taught. One of the reasons for the Illinois success is the first class instruction given at the Northwestern Academy by Edward Hilliard and Earl Kruetz while in New England an outfit from Camp Teela Wooket had the advantage of the superb horsemanship and training of the well known Dutch horseman, Fred Marsman. There is no point in asking children to keep a group of adults interested, if the children are not going to ride and perform better than children are expected to do. If they do, there is no more appreciative audience than adults, nor is there a class with more eye appeal.

For this year, F. E. I. classes have been most helpful. At Flintridge in California, Devon and at Bellewood in Pennsylvania, in fact everywhere that these jumping classes have been held well, the audience has been on the edge of their chairs. F. E. I. jumping is horsemanship with a touch of class and an audience appreciates it. Any old chucklehead clodhopper and preferably something with some Percheron in it, can be poled and stung enough to galumph around a ring in the old fashioned touch and out or other open jumper variety of show ring performance. F. E. I. rules call for even pace, balance and variety. The audience likes that. Add to this some dressage, such as Bryn Mawr-Chester County will have this year and shows will begin to provide a better bill of fare.

The small county fair variety of horse shows miss a big bet by not spreading their wings. Pony races, musical chairs, fancy dress, family driving, obstacle classes, known for years in England as the gymkhana, always relieve the monotony of the average hunter-jumper, saddle horse.

Children are the horse shows' best bet and incidentally in the encouragement of children to compete, lies the best insurance for the continuation of horse shows which now may be running in the red by catering only to big name stables. Those big names don't draw a hatful of spectators nowadays compared to the enthusiastic participation of a bunch of kids in a wide variety of classes. As the future horsemen of America, children can be the salvation of many horse shows that are today wondering where their crowds have gone.

Letters To The Editor

Three-Day-Event

To—
All who are definitely or tentatively planning to compete in the 3-day event—
Gentlemen:

Will you kindly disregard my letter of August 12th, for I have just been advised that a recent ruling of the F. E. I. permits amateurs to compete with professionals without jeopardizing their amateur standing.

The competition to be held September 22d, 23d, and 24th is, therefore, being thrown open to amateurs and professionals with the distinct understanding that professionals will know that they are not eligible in themselves for Olympic competition, but that their mounts are eligible and from them, if available, may come future Olympic material.

Sincerely,
J. Brooks B. Parker
Philadelphia, Pa.

Pedigree Yardstick

Dear Editor:

I have just read your interesting article entitled, "Where are the Jumpers?", and the list of sires of steeplechase winners. While I have no wish to change the standards and systems of setting up a good pedigree for a prospective jumper, it seems that some method could be worked out whereby one would know exactly and without fault just what he was purchasing by little more than merely reading the pedigree, and record of accomplishment. For instance, in the cattle world, The Breeder Associations have definite rules and regulations regarding their animals, and it is not difficult to note a so-called "padded pedigree." They are graded as to "Excellent, Very Good", etc. on a point system which covers their conformation completely. In some of the largest cattle deals there is an atmosphere of utmost confidence and trust between the buyer and seller.

Perhaps breeders would be more encouraged in their looking for good bloodlines if horses were put on a grade-point system somewhat similar to dairy and beef cattle, but adapted to their own use. In order to promote an idea such as this on such an extensive scale a large organized group might be of great help.

Of course, it is as you say, "When you want the best, breed for the best." There seems to be an increasing interest in all jumping competition and a very promising field for those who are interested in breeding for that specific purpose.

Very sincerely,
Nancy Bouch

U. S. OLYMPIC TEAM A Co-operative Effort

Advices have just been received that a recent ruling of the F. E. I. permits amateurs to compete with professionals without jeopardizing their amateur standing. The Three-Day Competition to be held September 22, 23, and 24, 1949, at The Combined Shows at Devon and in the Radnor country is, therefore, being thrown open to amateurs and professionals with the distinct understanding that professionals will know that they are not eligible in themselves for the Olympic competition, but that their mounts are eligible and from them, if available, may come future Olympic material.

It is hoped that this modification of the original conditions will permit more entries to be made, of which there are at present six. Careful measurements are being taken of the various distances of the course and as soon as completed will be published, but they still remain approximately as originally indicated in the announcement appearing in the Middleburg Chronicle of June 17th.

Gratifying interest has been shown from all over the United States but more entries are desired. Anyone who has a good horse and knows a professional who can ride it should enter to insure the success of this attempt to start early enough so that in 1952 we may have horses and riders to compete for the United States in equestrian sports at the Olympic Games.

Hendersonville Horse Show

Special Consideration Given To Young Horses Attracts High Quality Hunters; Gypsy Song Green Hunter Champion

Mary Clayton

The Hendersonville Horse Show, held in Hendersonville, N. C., July 21-23, was a great success. What it lacked in number of hunters, it made up in quality and this, I think is due to the fact that this year they gave the young horses a break. Always before the youngsters have had to go the same course as the made horses and many a good one was left "at home" because he wasn't quite ready for such competition. This year, however, Hendersonville worked it so that the green horses went a 3'-6" course while the older horses went the same course raised 3".

This arrangement was a good thing for the youngsters and encouraging to the owners. In the future if more North Carolina shows will do the same thing, there should be more hunters at the shows and certainly it will lend an incentive to folks to go out and buy some good young prospects.

Gypsy Song, an iron grey 3-year-old mare by Gypsy Minstrel, owned by T. E. Hemby, did herself proud by winning the hunter hack class her first time ever in a show ring. From here she went on to win enough to put her 1-2 point over Mile-Away Farm's Formaloup for the green hunter championship. Formaloup, typy chestnut 3-year-old German gelding really did well, considering he had only been broken a few weeks prior to the show.

The hunter championship was pinned on a very attractive bob-tailed chestnut gelding, Rapid Joe, which went the course in good form. Placing behind him for reserve honors was that nice, honest big chestnut gelding, Hunter's Moon, owned and ridden by Alex Hemby.

The open jumping classes throughout the show were keen and close with many jump offs. It finally boiled down to the championship having to be decided by a jump off as Billy Tate's diminutive chestnut mare, Nylon, and 9-year-old Rick Coker's Frosty Morn both had 10 points. The jumps were set at 4'-6" and both horses went clean. However, at the 5'-0" height, Frosty Morn had a hind rub while Nylon again cleared the bars without a fault to win the jumper championship with Frosty Morn reserve.

James River Jr. Hunt Stages Fine Show At the Briar Patch

Ellen Huffman

The James River Junior Hunt Club deserves considerable credit for the horse show staged by them on August 7 at The Briar Patch, Hilton Village, Virginia. An organization of a year's standing, their able and experienced President Marguerite Mugler, initiated the less experienced members into the intricate management of a horse show. Under the guidance of a few senior members, Tiggy Parker, Kenny Wilson, and Betty Woodlief, the youngsters quickly caught on to their enormous responsibility. For once they bribed the weather man to be on their side and a made to order day appeared, being ideal for riding or showing. This was also their first attempt at having a show recognized by the V. H. S. A. and open to riders of all ages.

For a while it seemed that Richmond entries would overshadow any other hopeful contestants. Happy Mayo and Kenny Wilson of the Peninsula, saved the day by taking the jumper championship and reserve respectively—while 8-year-old Valerie Garrett on her consistent pony Silver, saved the faces of local youngsters by getting reserve pony championship behind Cloverleaf Stables' (Richmond) Cinderella which easily was ridden to pony championship by Miss Myrna Felvey.

The coveted class of equitation over fences for the Nachman Challenge Trophy and open only to members of the Junior Hunt, was won by Nancy Lee Huffman over the defending holder, Marguerite Mugler.

Walter Craigie's Swift Stream proved that he likes the going at Briar Patch by putting in superb rounds to win the hunter championship while Betty Berle Schenk's Baby's Bond, a recent acquisition,

Silver Spring Pony And Junior Show Held July 24

Alden McKim Crane

The Silver Spring (Md.) Pony and Junior Show was held July 24 at Ray's Meadow under the able direction of 13-year-old Bruce Fales.

The smallest and youngest rider present, little Miss Bobbie Gardner practically stole the show with her winning rides in jumping classes on her pint sized Danny Boy and her large spotted pony Pattie. Pattie won the intermediate pony jumper championship.

The important Gittings horsemanship class was won by Roxy Wagner with Sidney Gadd 2nd, John Freeman, Jr. 3rd and Laura Lee Shreve 4th.

Cynthia Graffam's splendid Thane of Wales gave his usual good performance to win the small pony hunter championship and reserve championship in the small pony jumper division.

Billy Boyce piloting his Spice won the small pony jumper championship and won the reserve small pony hunter championship.

Howard Fowler's Roulette was outstanding in junior jumping classes and was pinned junior jumper champion with 17 points. Nancy Carrigan's Irish was in reserve position with 8 points.

SUMMARIES

Dusty Bay Champion Hunter At Bridle Pals Horse Show On July 10

Colleen

The Bridle Pals Horse Show at Manlius, N. Y., on July 10, was the largest one day show in this vicinity, drawing 149 horses.

Rain in the early morning dampened the spirits of the committee but these dried out along with the ring when the sun came out about eleven to make a perfect day. It was really all for the best because after the drought we have been suffering, this bit of rain was just enough to make perfect footing.

Troop K Farms, where this show was held, has the best hunt course in this area and is an ideal spot for a show offering plenty of ring side parking and good visibility of the ring and the outside course.

The committee worked on the theory that the exhibitor should have first consideration at a show and afforded them every courtesy, including a tent where lunch was served.

The hunter championship class was won by Dusty Bay, owned by Joe Cincotta. Joey rode his bold fencing little mare to have an excellent round and received the tricolor with a happy grin, this being his first championship.

Reserve went to Cappy Winkleman riding D. W. Winkleman's hunter, Cartender.

In novice hunter and green hunter, the blue went to Sak Coat, a well mannered 3-year-old, owned by Mrs. J. W. O'Neill and ridden by Cappy Winkleman. This horse shows lots of promise and is becoming a formidable threat in the hunter divisions.

In the open jumper division, Woodking owned by L. E. Doyle and ridden by John Vass, was tied in points for the championship with Maybe, owned by Chris DeDio and ridden by Frank Snyder. Maybe won the flip of the coin, giving him the tri-color.

The children's jumper class had a lot of spectator appeal, especially when Don Cornish entered the ring on his pony. This little, part Welsh, part Saddle-bred pony, loves to jump as was evidenced when he took second in the jump off in this class.

SUMMARIES

Green hunter—1. Sak Coat, Mrs. J. W. O'Neill; 2. Sun Sand, Ted Rouletton; 3. Free State, Jean Hopstein; 4. Portways, Bill Beekman.

Blue Water Horse Show Stages First Hunter And Jumper Events

Ruth M. Drake

The 4th annual Blue Water Horse Show sponsored by the Blue Water Sportsman's Association was an event of August 13 and 14 at Port Huron, Mich. The show was held at the permanent show ring of the Blue Water Sportsman's Club. This Club and Association is composed of a group of sportsmen from the "thumb" district of Michigan. Its purpose is the propagation and conservation of game, fish, and wild life, together with promoting the interest of sportsmanship at horse shows, and is affiliated with state and national organizations, also being a member of the Michigan Horse Show Association. The proceeds of this show will go toward these interests.

This is the first year the Blue Water Show has included hunter and jumper divisions in its program. Paul Craft and members of the horse show committee have appreciated the major addition these classes have been to the show. Interest was widespread and entries came in from points even beyond Michigan. Mr. Craft says the association will increase the number of events for the hunters and jumpers next year to attract an even greater number of exhibitors.

During the first day's events, Miss Lynn Bennett led the way in the hunter division with blue ribbons in ladies' hunter, lightweight hunters, and green hunters. This charming little miss, just 12 years old, piloted her own chestnut mare My Secret in all of the aforementioned classes. Much of the credit for Lynn's success can be attributed to her teacher and coach, Miss Violet Hopkins.

Dick Fruehauf of Grosse Pointe, Mich., began to pick up points in the Saturday evening events when he won the open jumper class with his Good Deal. The same horse went on to place in the ribbons in knock-down-and-out, later in the evening and continued his streak with winning middle and heavyweight hunter Sunday afternoon. Dick's other horse, Russell, was well up in the ribbons in most of the open classes, winning the scurry class Sunday afternoon with Miss Janet Allen up.

Noteworthy among the classes in this show were the equitation events in which Miss Rosemary Caswell won the championship in the elimination for best boy or girl rider. Miss Caswell captured the hunter championship stake class, placing her Sir Reginald as hunter champion. Miss Ann Jensen took first place in the horsemanship class for children 12 to 16 years of age in the hunter seat Saturday afternoon. Miss Jensen broke and trained her own horse Twenty-One, so-named, she explains, because the suggested Black Jack did not appeal to the little owner.

Magic Valley Show Held July 21-23 At Twin Falls, Ohio

The 6th annual Magic Valley Horse Show included numerous divisions in its 3-night event held July 21-23 at Twin Falls, Idaho. Something a bit out of the ordinary was offered in the hunter and jumper classes as the men and ladies had their individual classes. The only event which did not specify riders was the last class on closing night which was for previous winners of the English pleasure classes.

Miss Barbara Busch's Y-Bar-Me was outstanding at the show, accumulating 3 blues. It was interesting to note how the pinning of the ribbons varied when the riders were changed. Y-Bar-Me won with different riders up while Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Bird's Beau Dare accounted for 2 blues with Mr. Bailey riding.

Altoona Horse Show

Daneen Lenehan On Her Justa Wac Wins Junior Championship; Springsbury Farm's Moonlight Bay Green Hunter Champion

Chris Black

In the junior division of the 16th annual Altoona Horse Show, Altoona, Pa., Miss Daneen Lenehan, age 13 really proved herself a capable "jock" riding her well known mare, Justa Wac, to the championship. She rides her mare with grace and ease, making every moment of it a pleasure for horse and rider as well as the spectators. Miss Jane Cowan, reserve champion, also put in many fine performances on her hunter Mickey.

This show was held for the first time on Aug. 13-14 at the Franks-town Hunt's newly constructed show grounds at the Club's Farm. The outside course is laid out to resemble the rolling country of the western Pennsylvania hunts. It takes a clever hunter to turn in a commendable round on a course of this type.

The green hunter division was won by Moonlight Bay, with reserve going to Sultan's War, both of Springsbury Farm.

Mrs. Rust had her resourceful Fitzrada which she showed in the working hunter division and several open jumping classes. Fitzrada compiled 24 points for the working hunter championship, and missed the jumper reserve by 1-2 point on a jump off. Miss Evelyn Thompson did an excellent job on Miss Betty Bosley's Count Stefan winning the reserve working hunter championship.

The open jumpers provided much keen competition. The touch and out class was jumped off three times before the first three ribbons could be pinned. Eli Scurry, riding for Goodman Feinberg, on Sir Galahad finally cleared the jinxed double oxer to win the blue. So well did Sir Galahad clear his fences that he captured the championship with his stablemate Turk receiving the reserve ribbon.

The ride or drive family class provided much entertainment. P. A. Vipond harnessed his faithful hunter, Masonic, to a buggy and crowded in three generations of Viponds, eleven in all. In the riding group the Daniel Lenehans received top honors with an entry of six, Michael, the youngest, being off lead-line for the first time.

Miss Alice Walton, won the middle and heavyweight conformation class with her mare, Alfred's Flash. She also rode Mrs. George P. Greenhalgh's Portald, annexing two blues and red for the Springsbury Farm. Bond Drive, the good, strong going conformation hunter, owned by Mrs. Simon Patterson, had many good rounds. Under the capable hands of Daniel P. Lenehan, he was ridden to reserve conformation hunter championship, topped only by the champion Moonlight Bay of Springsbury Farms.

Mrs. Gilbert Humphrey's Sea Flare Painted By Milton Menasco of Ky.

One of the most outstanding Thoroughbred hunters in the Chagrin Valley Field is the 17-hand chestnut belonging to Mrs. Gilbert Humphrey that appears this week on the cover of The Chronicle. The painting was completed last Spring by Milton Menasco of Lexington, Kentucky, who is currently working on the staff of the Thoroughbred Record. Mr. Menasco has done a most attractive composition of the sizeable chestnut by Torchilla—Admiral's Lassie, by Man o'War.

The dam of Sea Flare has been a good producer of jumpers having had two well known horses over timber, Our Sailor and Rollin' Home. Sea Flare himself has shown an unusual ability to hunt and jump. Mrs. Humphrey secured him as a yearling from Mrs. Mary Barbin of Virginia and has ridden, hunted and shown him herself ever since, Sea Flare being her only conveyance to hounds in 1944 and 1945 when the pair hunted regularly with Chagrin Valley.

The big chestnut has been seldom out of the ribbons in the show ring due to his excellent jumping performances, and good conformation. In spite of his size as a ladies' hunter, he has won many hack classes as well as a number of hunter classes. He always puts in an honest performance, unusual for its evenness of pace and consistent jumping. His top performance was the winning in 1948 of the Chagrin Valley Hunt Show Conformation Hunter Championship.

Oneonta Horse Show Features Variety

*Golden Hill Wins 3-Day Conformation Division Competition; Jumper Division Topped By Sun Beau and Happy Landing

Tanbark

Exhibitors and horses at the Oneonta Horse Show held on the Webb Island show grounds, Oneonta, N. Y., August 12, 13 and 14, literally uttered a collective sigh of relief when Sunday night arrived. An amazing number of classes alternately held in rain, mud or hot sun tired one and all thoroughly.

Besides the number of classes, the conformation division featured something new in 3 day competitions. In the first section the horses were judged only as models, in the second section they were judged only on performance over the outside course (no conformation), and in the third section they were judged only as hunter hacks (no conformation). The class was won by the Dublin combination of Tony Wallace on Hale Stables' grand moving *Golden Hill. After having won the performance section Friday (which had to be delayed while the judge changed his wet socks), "Goldie" proceeded to win the hack section and place 3rd to his stablemate, *Glen Erin and D. W. Winkelman's Cartender in the model section. In addition to several other blues, *Golden Hill gave Miss Betty Jane Baldwin "just the biggest thrill" by winning the lady's and amateur's classes with her in the saddle.

The preliminary was a mere formality as far as the championship was concerned but the reserve was decided by it when Cartender, ridden by Ed Daniels, placed 2nd to *Golden Hill while his closest rival Miss Cynthia Cannon's Moonshiner placed 4th behind Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Doyle's Propaganda, ridden by Johnny Vass. As a result Cartender was named reserve champion with 19 points to *Golden Hill's overwhelming 39 points.

The quality of the working hunters was extremely high and as a result the ribbons were more widely distributed than in the conformation division. Though Mr. Winkelman was kept busy helping the lone jump boy reset the rather easily displaced rails on the outside course fences, he found time to ride his own Renown to win the amateur class. Jim McKinnon took over from his new manager Bill Loeffler to win the owner-rider class on Tarad. Raymond Burr arrived at the show on Sunday in time to win the stake class on his former mount, Hydro Fashion, recently acquired by Miss Betts Nashem. However, it was Mrs. John Kehoe's 15.2 Peruvian gelding, Magno, and Miss Betty Jane Baldwin's 15.0, home-bred Brandywine which performed most consistently to be named champion and reserve with 27 and 26 points respectively. Incidentally, Betty Jane rode Tarad to the blue in the lady's working hunter over Brandywine.

The Winkelmans added another tri-color to their ribbon collection when Cappy Winkelman rode Katydid, more famous as an open jumper, to the children's championship over Wee-3-Stable's consistently dependable Lady Pinafore, ridden by Miss Kathleen Rice.

The open jumper division was dominated by the Sterling Smith horses ridden by Freeland Evans and the Arthur Nardin horses ridden by George Braun. The only class not won by either was the F. E. I. class which went to Russell Stewart's My Play Boy, newly returned to the show ring after a long absence. The Messers. Smith and Nardin's most serious competitor, Mrs. Don Ferraro's Black Watch, hurt his tendon on Friday after placing 2nd and 4th in two classes. Miss Peggy Mills, to whom all credit must go for Black Watch's present consistency in the open ranks, decided to scratch the horse from the rest of the show rather than risk the chance of a serious, permanent injury.

Even though Sterling Smith's Sun Beau and Happy Landing were champion and reserve, Arthur Nardin's Trader Request won the stake while Mrs. Nardin's Trader Horn won the 3-day competition.

Donor Wins Saratoga Handicap

In First Stakes Triumph Since the Butler 'Cap Last November, the Son of Challedon Defeats Stunts and the Favored My Request

Frank Talmadge Phelps

Donor's victory on Saturday, August 20, in the Saratoga Handicap marked the second time this year a prominent Thoroughbred has regained his form after a prolonged absence from competition. Assault was the first. Although Coaltown's smashing of Equipoise's world's record for a mile at Washington Park captured most of the headlines, Mrs. Deering Howe's 5-year-old gelding by Challedon—Orissa, by Purchase, also deserves some comment.

The Saratoga was Donor's first stakes triumph since he won the Butler Handicap last November. In the Saratoga he was third high weight by scale, at 117 pounds. The favored My Request toted top impost of 123 pounds, and Conniver carried 118. The rest of the field, with the weights, was composed of *Michigan III, 116, Going Away 105, Stunts 112, Chains 110, *Bayeux and Rose Beam 109 each, Madelon II 106, First Nighter 107, and Flascho 102.

G. H. "Pete" Bostwick's Stunts set the early pace, with My Request and Donor following. They stayed in that order until the turn into the stretch, where Jockey Warren Mehrtens guided Donor through along the rail as Stunts went wide and carried My Request with him. Mrs. Howe's gelding outlasted Stunts by a neck at the wire, with My Request another half-length back and Chains in 4th position.

Donor's sire, Challedon, foaled April 18, 1936, was bred and raced by W. L. Brann. The son of *Challenger II—Laura Gal, by *Sir Gallahad III, was trained for a time by L. J. Schaefer, later by G. D. Cameron, and still later by E. A. Christmas. At 2 he won the Maryland, New England and Pimlico Futurities.

Challedon was the leading 3-year-old of his year. Never out of the money that season, he captured the Preakness, Arlington Classic, Yankee, Havre de Grace and Maryland Handicaps, Narragansett and Pimlico Specials, and Hawthorne Gold Cup. At Keeneland he set a new world's record of 1:54-3/5 for 1-3/16 miles. He also placed behind Johnstown in the Kentucky Derby.

The son of *Challenger II was never unplaced as a 4-year-old. He became the first horse ever to capture two runnings of the Havre de Grace Handicap and Pimlico Special. He established what was then a new track mark of 2:02 for 1 1/4 miles in the Hollywood Gold Cup. He also annexed the Whitney Stakes; ran 2nd to Hash in the Narragansett Special; and showed in the Massachusetts Handicap.

At 6 Challedon acquired the Philadelphia Handicap. He retired with total earnings of $334,665 from 44 starts, of which he captured 20, placed in 7, and finished 3rd in 6. He is now 17th on the world's list of money-winning horses.

Three years after his retirement, his full sister Challadette won the Maryland Futurity and Marguerite Stakes.

Challedon was an immediate success as a sire. Donor was a member of his first crop. From his second came the $155,285 earner Shy Guy, which has triumphed in the Breeders' Futurity, Keeneland Special, Louisville, Ben Ali, Clark, Border City and Colonel F. M. Alger Memorial Handicaps; and Challe Anne, which annexed last season's Kentucky Oaks and Lincoln Handicaps.

Last year Mr. Brann sold Challe-

Orissa, by Purchase, was bred by Harry F. Sinclair. She triumphed in the 1928 Fashion and Clover Stakes, and was retired the following year. Since 1930 she has foaled 13 offspring old enough to have raced a full season. One died as a yearling and one never started. Eight of the others have been victorious; and two, Only One and Donor, have captured stakes.

Only One, by Lucullite and hence a close relative to Grattan, took the 1935 Dixie, American Legion, Delaware, Baltimore and Prince George Autumn Handicaps. He placed in the Wilson and Laurel Stakes, Autumn, Queens County, Butler, Yonkers, Riggs and Bryan and O'Hara Memorial Handicaps; and showed in the Potomac, Capital, Paumonok, Metropolitan, Suburban, Empire City, Havre de Grace and Washington Handicaps. He is the sire of Tea-Maker.

ran 3rd in the Remsen Handicap, back of Phalanx and Tavistock, to whom he was yielding 9 and 10 pounds; and finished 4th in Fervent's Walden Stakes.

The Howe gelding's juvenile earnings of $69,515 resulted from 12 trips to the post, 7 wins, a place and 2 shows.

At 3 and thereafter Donor has been conditioned by Trainer George P. Odom. The bearer of the green and orange colors ran 4th in the Swift Stakes, captured by Owners Choice. Then he took the Yankee Handicap and, four months later, the Jerome. There followed a series of fourths in Cosmic Bomb's Lawrence Realization and Roamer Handicap, and in With Pleasure's Scarsdale. In the Westchester the gelding moved up a notch to 3rd position, back of Bridal Flower and With Pleasure.

Donor was victorious only 3 times in 11 starts at 3, and showed once, for total earnings of $63,000.

Last year, at 4, the gelded son of Challedon began his campaign none too promisingly, with a 4th in Knockdown's Excelsior Handicap, a place in a Grade C handicap at Jamaica, and another 4th in *Beauchef's Merchants' and Citizens' Handicap. But he found his way to the winner's circle once more in the Narragansett Special.

A series of seconds to Loyal Legion in the Edgemere and Manhattan Handicaps, and to *Miss Grillo in the New York, followed before Donor nosed out Carolyn A. in the Questionnaire. Then he ran 4th in Better Self's Westchester, and 3rd in the Daingerfield behind Phalanx and Flying Missile.

The Daingerfield was run on Saturday, November 6. The following day Mr. Howe suffered a heart attack and died while swimming at the beach of Varadero, Cuba. He was 48.

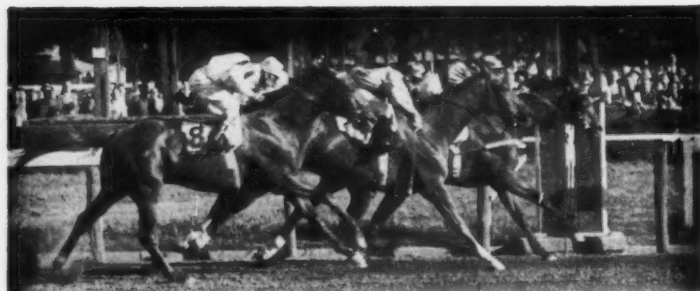

The next Saturday Donor carried his trainer's colors to victory in the Butler Handicap. His 4-year-old record stood at 17 outings, 5 triumphs, 4 places, a show and $129,595. He was rated at 114 pounds, alongside With Pleasure, Relic, Shy Guy, Escardu and See-Tee-See, in the Yardstick Handicap.

At the dispersal of the Howe estate at Keeneland on April 16, Joe W. Brown paid the top price of $12,000 for Donor's half-sister Rains Came, by Johnstown, and her suckling colt by Devil Diver. Mr. Brown went to $11,500 for the gelding's half-sister Lahara, by *Pharamond II, and her suckling son of Polynesian.

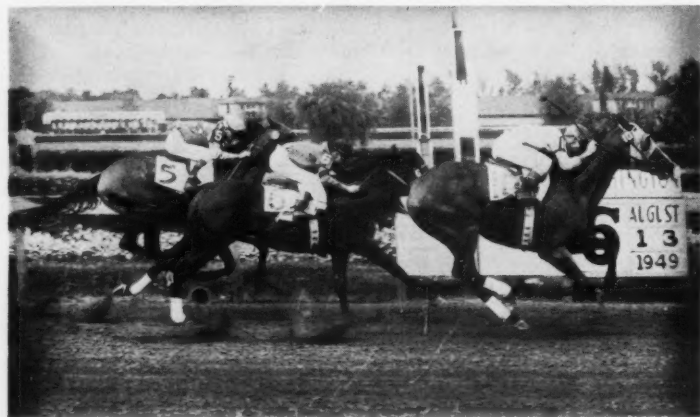

Colossus, a 3-year-old half-brother, by *Rhodes Scholar, to Donor, was knocked down for $5,700 to Yolo Stable, which also bid $5,000 for Chalonell, a 3-year-old filly by Challedon—Lahara. Dish, a juvenile gelding by Platter—Lahara, commanded a $2,000 offer from Charles H. Mile.

But Mrs. Howe did not sell Donor and sent him back to the track this year. Prior to the Saratoga Handicap, he had been 4th in Conniver's Butler, which was run in the summer this season; placed in the Wilson Mile a head back of Manyunk, to whom he was yielding 6 pounds; and ran 2nd to Round View, to whom he was conceding the same weight differential, in the Whitney Stakes.

Last season Donor was at his best in the early fall. This year his performances have shown consistent improvement. The gelded son of Challedon, which springs from a notably hardy stock, is capable of providing sharp competition in the handicap ranks, particularly at his favorite distances of between 8 and 10 furlongs.

DONOR REGAINS FORM; Mrs. Deering Howe's 5-year-old gelding, Jockey Warren Mehrtens up, coming through on the rail to win the Saratoga 'Cap on August 20. G. H. Bostwick's Stunts, Jockey T. don for $250,000 to a syndicate headed by Ira Drymon, at whose Gallaher Farm, near Lexington, Ky., the sire of Donor now stands.

Donor's fourth dam, *Lady Minting, was by Minting out of a daughter of the noted mare Distant Shore, by Hermit. *Lady Minting was brought from England to the Keene Stud in 1903, at the age of 12. Her daughter Pageant, by Delhi, produced Dress Ship, which acquired the Troy Stakes. Dress Ship's half-sister Durbar, by *Chicle, became the dam of Orissa and Grattan. The latter, a son of Lucullite, won the Great American and Hudson Stakes, Tip Top and Burch Memorial Handicaps.

Donor, foaled May 10, 1944, was home-bred by the late Deering Howe, whose green and orange silks were borne by such able performers as Cassis, True North and Rabies.

Donor was trained at 2 by Preston M. Burch. The son of Challedon began his racing career like the proverbial "house afire". In a seven-week period he took the Sapling, World's Playground and Sanford Stakes, and Albany Handicap. In the latter he turned Saratoga's 6 furlongs in 1:10-1/5.

After showing behind Double Jay and Miss Kimo in the James H. Connors Memorial, Donor came back to cop the Champagne Stakes. Then he

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS
OF THE TURF

Thoroughbreds

Turfwriters Awards To Jockey Ted Atkinson,
Trainer J. P. Conway and Breeder
Warren Wright Presented At Dinner

Joe H. Palmer

The annual dinner of the New York Turfwriters Association differed from most such gatherings in that, as far as I could tell, nobody did anything to advance the best interests of racing, or offered any solution to the problems of the turf. I say "as far as I could tell" because such speeches as there were, were made, virtually, into a vacuum. The microphone was slightly insensitive, as night club microphones are purposely made to keep them from picking up crowd noises and occasional audience comments which verge on impropriety.

The professionals were aware of this, of course, and got virtually in it and were audible. The amateurs stayed a foot or two away, and thus talked largely to themselves. One bystander, who became aware of this, tipped off Ted Atkinson before he went up for his plaque, and he was consequently heard, but since about all he said was that he hadn't expected to get the award, but was glad he had, this did no damage anyway.

Atkinson, as noted, got the award for his riding in 1948, and J. P. Conway, who made an outstanding success for the comparatively small stable of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Whitaker, was picked as the most outstanding trainer. Warren Wright, as you'd think, was picked as the most successful breeder.

The association formerly gave an award each year to the person "who had done the most racing." This lent itself to parody—one citizen suggested a plaque each year to the person for whom racing had done the most—and it was overly pretentious, anyway. So for 1948 this was called merely a "special award," and the voting produced a tie between Marshall Cassidy, steward representing The Jockey Club and de facto head of New York racing, and George D. Widener, president of Belmont Park. Instead of making them flip for it, the turfwriters gave them a plaque each.

It can't be very often that the same mare produces two feature winners during the same week, but Drowsy, a "Royal Minstrel" mare owned by Greentree Farm, did it at Saratoga last week, and threw in a minor winner as well. Her principal produce, of course, was the 2-year-old filly Sunday Evening, which quite unexpectedly upset Striking in the Spinaway Stakes on Tuesday, but three days later her 4-year-old, Mesmer, also won the feature event, an overnight mile handicap. Her 3-year-old, Night Game, by Shut Out, won a sprint on Saturday. Drowsy winner of the Ashland Stakes in the early days of Keeneland, when the big Eastern stables shipped there more than they do now, is a grey herself, and so are these three, though Sunday Evening officially is a "chestnut roan" and Mesmer a strawberry roan. The filly is by Eight Thirty, and Mesmer by Third Degree. Mesmer was shucked off some time ago, running now for Honeywell Stable, and in fact he has done nothing to make Greentree really regret his parting.

The filly is another matter. She ran with the pace in her first two starts, lost one, won one. In her last two she ran from away back, with the same result. But I'd guess that coming from off the pace is her best style. She wasn't anywhere in the Schuylerville and then closed with a rush which got her 2nd place, behind Striking. The Spinaway was 1-16 longer, and this time the late rush got the whole pot. According to the chart she made up about 3 lengths in the last furlong, and then pulled out to win by another one. My impression at the time was that it was more. At any rate, she was running much faster than anything else in the race.

I'm afraid we overrated Striking. She's quite handsome, despite a knot on one leg ("She brought it from Kentucky," said Jim Fitzsimmons), but the Spinaway suggested that she can't carry her speed. Fals Do Do and Bed o' Roses, which were, respectively, getting and giving 4 pounds, were both getting to her at the finish, and it looked as if she'd have been out of the money if she'd had another 1-16 to go. The sister to Busher and Mr. Busher is genuine as far as she'll go, but it doesn't seem that she'll go very far.

Belair Stud has mixed fortunes last week with two of its best horses. Whirling Fox ran an excellent race on Thursday, beating Royal Governor a neck at 6 furlongs. I suppose I've always overrated Royal Governor, but anyway the race impressed me as a good one. But it finished Whirling Fox for the season. Last year he broke a bone in his foot, and it took a year of running out at Belair Stud, in Maryland, for this to heal. In Thursday's race he fractured the same bone, though not in exactly the same place, and he goes back to Belair for another long rest in the fields. He had won 3 races this year, and had justified some of the hopes held for him at two.

Shackleton, the Dwyer winner who has been a headache on other counts, made a little progress. You will recall that he caused a ditcher at Jamaica by backing out of the gate in the Saranac, when the others broke. For a while it seems impossible to get him in the gate again, and when he got in he wouldn't come out. But early last week he consented to walk into the gate from behind and to break from a walk. On Saturday he went in, with the front gates open but the back ones closed, and he stood peacefully enough and broke from a standing start. He's still scared of the gate, but he's shown some improvement.

Heavy rains played the deuce with the field for the Diana Handicap, and probably elected the winner as well. Five of the overnight entries were scratched, leaving seven to go to the post. The track was extremely sloppy, and Spats, now owned by Mrs. Tillyou Christopher, found it exactly to her liking. She took the lead out of the gate and won by 8, which was a pleasant surprise to Ted Atkinson, who went into the race regretting he had been unable to get the mount on Miss Request. The latter finished 4th.

Spats is a Cravat filly for which E. P. Taylor paid $5,000 as a yearling, and which was lost to the present owner in a claiming race for $10,000. She had won her only stakes victory, the Schuylerville, over the same track two years pre-

Finals of Saratoga Yearling Sales

Total of 405 Yearlings Sell For $1,408,200
Or An Average of $3,477 Each Which Is 14% Under Last Year's Figure

Chris Wood, Jr.

According to the final figures offered by the Fasig-Tipton Company, the Spa's annual yearling vendue ended on a brighter note than was originally predicted by many of turfdom's crystal-gazers. The official statement shows that 405 yearlings passed under the hammer for a total of $1,408,200, at an average of $3,477. This average is only 14 percent under last year's figure, when 395 youngsters garnered a total of $1,600,050, for an average of $4,050. The recent Keeneland sales, where "selected" yearlings were sold, showed a drop of 16.3 percent under their 1948 figures.

Had some of the riding academy candidates been eliminated from the final week at Saratoga, it is possible that the final figures would have approximated those of last year. The youthful president of the sales company, Tyson Gilpin, will attempt to do this preceding the 1950 vendue. He is discussing a $100 minimum fee for all yearling entrants and a visual preview of doubtful stock. A move of this nature will be favored by business-breeders who strive to attain perfection in their offerings, and it will tend to discourage the recent crop of war-time breeders who hopped aboard the bandwagon when anything with a mane and tail was bringing $5,000.

The top bid on a yearling during the final week was made by William Ziegler, Jr., when he bid $8,100 for a well-proportioned youngster by First Fiddle from Grand Drive. This colt was the first foal from the dam, a full sister to the stakes winner, Rough Time. The purchase by the Middleburg, Va., owner-breeder, again proved the popularity of the young stallion currently standing in the Old Dominion. His four offspring during the first week brought a total of $52,000.

Miss Tilly Wins Hambletonian

The Filly By Nibble Hanover Trotted
The Second Heat In 2:01-2/5, the Fastest
Time For A 3-Year-Old Trotter This Year

Tom Shehan

Harness horse followers are hard to convince. At least they were at this year's running (the 24th) of the Hambletonian at Goshen, N. Y., on August 10, when they persisted in making C. M. Saunder's Bangaway the favorite. He finished 12th in the first heat and 14th in the second heat behind C. W. Phellis' Miss Tilly, a bright bay daughter of Nibble Hanover and the Scotland mare, Tilly Tonka, which returned to the form that enabled her to become the leading money winning 2-year-old filly of all time last year and took harness racing's blue-ribbon event in two straight heats.

Miss Tilly is the seventh filly to win this event and her performance was excellent since she won a second Hambletonian for both her owner, the former president of the Grand Circuit, and her driver, the veteran Fred Egan. Driver Egan wore Mr. Phellis' red, green and gold colors when he drove Spencer Scott to victory in the 1940 renewal of the buggy horse equivalent of the Kentucky Derby.

Frank Ervin, who has driven at least one stakes winner at every Grand Circuit meeting this year, appraised Miss Tilly's performance accurately when asked what happened to Martha Doyle, which he was driving, conqueror of the Hambletonian winner in the Coaching Club Oaks at Goshen's half-mile track, Goshen Historic, earlier in the year.

"Look at the time for those heats," he said. "That's what was the matter with Martha Doyle and the others, too. She just wasn't enough horse to beat Miss Tilly, that's all. Don't make any mistake, she's a good filly."

Miss Tilly, which took over about the 1-2-mile pole when Bangaway, the favorite, went on a break, trotted the first mile in 2:03, ordinary time, with a half in 1:01, while leading Coldstream Stud's Volume to the wire by half a length. The lead changed several times in this heat with St. Clair, a stablemate of the winner, which was driven by Clint Hodkins, setting the early pace and then giving away to Bangaway, which in turn surrendered to the ultimate winner.

The Nibble Hanover filly's superiority was even more marked in the second heat, which she trotted in 2:01 2-5, the fastest time for a 3-year-old trotter this year and the 3rd fastest Hambletonian heat since the race was inaugurated back in 1926. The heat record of 2:00 flat was established by the Castleton Farm's Hoot Mon, the 1947 winner, which was developed by Egan and then sold to Castleton for $50,000 and driven to his score by Sep Palin. As was the case in the first heat, St. Clair set the early pace, but only for the first quarter of a mile where the winner took over.

In his post mortem analysis of the race, Trainer-driver Egan, who admits that he will have been driving 42 years come October 3, says that he clucked to the filly and that she responded more like herself than at any other time this year and went right to the front. She continued to open up on her opposition under mild urging when the stretch was reached and finished with 5 lengths to spare in 2:01 2-5 after another half in 1:01. Closest to her was Charles Ruderman's sore-going Rocco Hanover.

Fred Egan also explained that in his opinion, at least, Miss Tilly's poor showing in early engagements could be accounted for by the fact that she wasn't quite ready for the hard race she was given in the Coaching Club Oaks at Goshen Historic earlier in the year.

When I asked if this would explain Miss Tilly's getting to the front in the stretch during one heat of the Hambletonian Preview at Old Orchard Beach, Me., and then chucking it, the veteran reinsman, who first attracted attention around Denver, Colo., replied, "You fellows know athletes. You know that having a tough contest when they're not ready makes them dull. Well, it was the same way with this filly. She was knocked out here at Goshen and didn't really come back to herself until that second heat today."

Later I learned that Miss Tilly was started in the Coaching Club Oaks against Fred Egan's better judgment, but that information didn't come from him. The Coloradoan's association with Mr. Phellis has been a long and happy one and when the Greenwich man expressed a desire to have his filly in that event it was enough for Fred Egan, even if it was against his judgment as a trainer and driver.

Credit for bringing the filly back to herself, Trainer Egan generously gave to the veteran caretaker, Frank Wallace, who in the past has cared for Hoot Mon and other Egan-trained stars.

"You'll probably laugh when I tell you this," Fred Egan told the post-race press interview, "but Wallace deserves all of the credit for bringing this filly back. He worked on her 24 hours a day."

Asked to compare Miss Tilly to Spencer Scott, his previous Hambletonian winner, Fred Egan replied, "No, she's not as good. She was an easy horse to train, about as easy as Hoot Mon, but she's not as good as Spencer Scott."

Mr. Phellis, who was described by Fred Egan as "the best small time breeder in the business," bred and raised his winner. He owned and raced her dam Tilly Tonka, and when she was all through campaigning the Greenwich, Conn., man sent her to Hanover Shoe Farms in Pennsylvania to be bred to Nibble Hanover. After which she was shipped to Walnut Hall Farm in Kentucky where she dropped her foal.

As a 2-year-old Miss Tilly won all of her mile track engagements, including the $5,000 A. S. Tompkins Memorial, the $20,000 Greyhound Stakes, the $12,000 Trotting Club Stakes, the $25,000 Castleton Farm Stake, and the $34,000 Horseman Stake, which was her last start of the year. She made her debut in the Coaching Club Trotting Oaks and finished 2-2-4 to Martha Doyle. She was 4-4 to Joe Donlin in a $1,000 Stake at Old Orchard and 4-2 to the same colt in her next start at the same track. In her last start prior to the Hambletonian she finished 8-4 behind Martha Doyle and Scotch Pal in the $5,000 Hambletonian Preview, also at Old Orchard. Her Hambletonian victory was worth $37,617.39.

Probably the most confident member of the Phellis-Egan entourage was Mrs. Egan who, unbeknownst to her husband, ordered a dozen hand-painted ties carrying a likeness of Miss Tilly from Bob Buckley, the cartoonist for the Middletown, N. Y., Times-Record, a week before the race.

"Don't dare tell Fred," she warned Buckley, "but I went these ties to be ready to give him when he wins The Hambletonian with Miss Tilly."

That information would have been interesting to the players in advance of the race as Miss Tilly paid $17.90, $8.70 and $4.90 for the first heat and $7.30 $4.10 and $3.00 for the second.

Massachusetts 'Cap To First Nighter

David S. Toochin's Son of Eight Thirty Defeats the 2 To 5 Favorite Assault; Going Away 2nd By A Neck

Tom Shehan

There was a touch of irony in the fact that First Nighter, a chestnut son of Eight Thirty and Winning Streak and racing in the bronze and green silks of the Cherry Oca Stables of David S. Toochin of Swampscott, Mass., a refugee leather importer with offices in Boston and a tannery in Lynn, won the 15th running of the $50,000 added Massachusetts Handicap, a gallop of 1 1/4 miles, on August 13th. The irony lies in the fact that there is a growing feeling among the horsemen on the New England circuit, just as it was reported to exist among the horsemen in California last winter, that stakes events should be closed against invaders who are shipped in just for an event and then shipped right out again. Mr. Toochin, who is a refugee from Europe via China, where he had business connections until the Communists took over, is one of the few New England owners who has gone out and spent real money for horses to meet the competition of the invaders rather than just sit down and complain as so many others have, that the races should be restricted to those owners who race in New England all season.

Mr. Toochin admits to having invested $175,000 in the three years that he has been in racing. First Nighter representing $25,000 of it. The Eight Thirty colt's victory was worth $39,350 to the Swampscott man, which is only $2,650 less than the entire stable won during 1948, $33,000 of it during Rockingham Park's 84-day campaign.

Until he won the Massachusetts Handicap, First Nighter's most important victory was scored in the 1948 Lamplighter Handicap at Monmouth Park. That was just prior to his purchase by Mr. Toochin and he was saddled in that score by W. J. "Buddy" Hirsch for Mrs. Silas Mason. However, Harold Simmons, the Benton, Ill., veteran who doubles in brass as the divisional secretary of the HBPA and succeeded L. G. "Buster" Bedwell as the Swampscott expatriate's trainer, has been high on First Nighter for some time and he tried to beat Coalton with him in the Widener Cup at Hialeah last winter.

First Nighter's victory was the first for an offspring of a previous winner of the race. Eight Thirty having won the 1940 renewal of the event over a good field of eleven horses which included Hash, Challedon, Pass Out, War Dog, Big Pebble, Fenelon, Upstream, Isolater, Masked General and The Finest which finished in that order behind him. However, the field First Nighter defeated was the smallest in the history of the race, only four others, including the 2 to 5 favorite Assault, going to the post.

With such a small field, there was only straight betting on the race. However, as a second guess on the management, there might just as well have been wagering to place because most of the betting was on Assault, and he finished 4th. As far as King Ranch colt's racing luck is concerned, he had no apparent excuse, but afterwards his stable reported that he had bled internally and that a decision on whether he would ever run again or not would probably be made soon.

The son of Eight Thirty was favored, to some extent at least, by the heavy going which prevailed. His time, 2:04 3/5, was respectable enough, but Jockey Joe Renick gave most of the credit for the strategy of his ride to Trainer Harold Simmons. Trainer Simmons, it developed, had walked around the course on Sunday morning and by the time Jockey Renick arrived from New York at noon knew just how he wanted his charge ridden.

"I told Renick to stay off the rail on the turns, because it's deep," said Harold afterwards, "and down the backstretch stay 15 feet off the rail for the best going. From the three-sixteenths pole home the track is all alike, so take the shortest distance home to the wire."

"That's what I did," said Jockey Renick, who in victory completed a sweep of Suffolk Downs' top events, having ridden Brookmeade Stable's Going Away, which was beaten a neck for all the money today, to victory in the $25,000 added Yankee Handicap, Suffolk Downs' 3-year-old feature, during the Spring Meeting at Boston.

Gone Away, for that matter, might have made the sweep instead of Jockey Renick because the Brookmeade colt was only beaten a neck, but Hedley Woodhouse, who rode him, had him all over the track. Jockey Woodhouse's maneuvering was costly, however, particularly when he swung his mount wide at the lead of the stretch, where the first four horses were well bunched up, and allowed First Nighter to get through on the rail. From there on in Jockey Renick gave his mount a vigorous ride and was rewarded with first money.

The Nor-Mill Farms of Joe Hasan, said to be a retired textile manufacturer, put all its hope on *Michigan III, South American conqueror of Assault earlier in the year, scratching *Wynford II at the last minute. The Argentine horse raced well and was only beaten a neck and 3-4 of a length for all the money. He had no excuse that I could see or learn about.

Graham and Byrum's Fancy Flyer set the early pace, which was the only way he had a chance of winning it, but just wasn't good enough. After he surrendered, *Michigan III got to the front by a slight margin turning for home, but Going Away went to the front at the eighth pole and held command until First Nighter overhauled him in the final yards.

First Nighter carried 104 pounds to Going Away's 103, *Michigan III's 117, and Assault's 125. Fancy Flyer was assigned 106 pounds.

Among the 25,489 who witnessed the event was Gov. Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts. Governor Dever presented the trophy to Owner Toochin after watching the race from the Winner's Circle in the company of President John Pappas, of the Eastern Racing Association, operator of Suffolk Downs.

Steeplechasing At Bel Air

Mrs. C. E. Adams' *Gift of Gold Wins Louis Leith Memorial and Her *Uranium II Takes The Kenmore For A Clean Sweep

Jaeger

The old turf adage of "horses for courses" was demonstrated in no uncertain terms at the Bel Air, Md., race track on the drizzly afternoon of August 18, when Mrs. Clare E. Adams' *Gift of Gold won the Louis C. Leith Memorial Steeplechase, a claiming affair.

*Gift of Gold, an 8-year-old, has won 4 races in two years and 3 of them have been at the Harford County course. Last season, he started two times at Bel Air and was a galloping winner on both occasions. Frank (Dooley) Adams, one of the country's top steeplechase jockeys, came down from Saratoga to ride the horse for his mother and made no mistakes. He broke the gelding on top in the "about 2 miles" affair over 16 jumps. Lost the lead momentarily to Mrs. E. L. Holton's Busy Moments with a turn of the field to go, regained it on the final bend and came romping past the finish 12 lengths clear of Busy Moments with Adams' Refugio, coupled with the winner, 3rd, another 8 lengths away.

T. Simon's Sagamore Lady was 4th and Mrs. L. L. Lose's Paper Cutter a distant last. Eight horses started out, 3 lost their riders en route. A bad lot of jumpers went to the post in the Kenmore Steeplechase at Bel Air on August 19 and when the "about 2 miles" affair was over, it was Mrs. Clare E. Adams' *Uranium 2nd who got the job done under a fine bit of riding by Orlan A. Brown.

In fact, *Uranium 2nd's score meant the second winner for two days for the well-liked female owner-trainer. Yesterday, Mrs. Adams' *Gift of Gold ran off with the in-field event so *Uranium 2nd's score meant that the California conditioner was batting 1,000 after the meeting's two hedge-hopping races.

The Kenmore was an allowance affair for 4-year-olds and upward which had not won 2 races over brush and 8 ordinary jumpers competed. All finished except C. A. Smith's Travelalong, which lost amateur Jockey C. A. Smith, Jr. at the 5th jump.

Jockey Brown sent *Uranium 2nd to the front when Starter Eddie Blind sent them off and led throughout with Mrs. S. B. Merryman's Makorbreak doing all the chasing.

At the end, *Uranium 2nd was 10 lengths clear of Makorbreak with Mrs. W. D. Thomas' Bright Point 3rd, some 45 lengths to the rear of Makorbreak. Another 35 lengths away in 4th place was Mrs. G. C. Everhart's Rubicon.

Strung out in order named after the first four horses were Mrs. L. L. Lose's On The Cuff, Mrs. J. Strawbridge, Jr.'s Coq D'Fantome and Mrs. Helen Ackman's Our Debutante.

Saratoga Steeplechasing

R. W. Grant's Sun Bath Led From Start To Finish To Win The Beverwyck In Easy Fashion On August 19

Spectator

Robert W. Grant's Sun Bath came back in The Beverwyck Steeplechase Handicap on Friday under 143 lbs. and found the slow course much to his liking. He led from start to finish in easy fashion with his nearest competition 8 lengths away at the wire. This was Happy Hill Farm's Adaptable, making his first start since early in June. Another fifteen lengths back, Tourist List finished 3rd, while Band Leader completed the field, a well beaten 4th.

As expected, Band Leader closely followed Sun Bath in the early stages of the race, with Tourist List and Adaptable 10 lengths in the rear. However, after 6 fences Band Leader, jumping erratically at times, found the pace and the going not to his liking, and started to come back. Out in front Dooley Adams was having a good ride, Sun Bath running and jumping as he did a week previously in the North American. The second time around Paddy Smithwick on Adaptable, shook up his mount and started the long chase, overhauling both Tourist List and Band Leader on the far side. Coming around the last turn, he cut Sun Bath's lead to about 6 lengths, but once over the last jump, Adams clucked to Sun Bath, which was comparatively fresh, and there never was a question of a doubt from there to the wire.

beaten at the time, appeared likely to get in the money until he suddenly swerved and ran into another beacon. This time Foote went off. At the same time, C. M. Kline's Easter Vigil, a winner on the flat at Radnor this spring, went by the tiring Frenchtown, and then drew out in the stretch run to win by seven lengths. Second place went to Pile o' Tricks, which closed very fast in the closing stages, to beat Fredsel for the place. In the stretch run, Frenchtown faded so quickly that he wound up a well beaten 5th.

A claiming hurdle on Tuesday resulted in another victory for the Auburn Farms—Judy Johnson—Dooley Adams combination when Fall Guy was returned the winner by 9 lengths, with Shucks, Pretender and Merry Old Soul getting the money in that order.

On Wednesday, it started raining hard about one o'clock, and by three the infield was well soaked. All of this added up to Clynmalra Stud's *Persepolis, a known mudder, sloshing home in front by 12 lengths in easy fashion in the 1 3-4 mile test over hurdles. At the beginning Hot went to the front, closely followed by Escarp, with *Persepolis in third place. By the time the field had run down the far side, and then up the front field to the clubhouse, Hot was through, evidently not liking the going. Escarp assumed the Indian file, with *Kipper assuming the lead the second time around, and then going on to win all by himself. The Cushman color bearer fenced well most of the way, and really made a show of his field which included *Oak Bulger, Bannock Laddie and Oak Leaf in that order at the end. The last mentioned has shown the ability to run on a heavy field, but in this race he practically tore out the front field liverpool the first time around, and then jumped poorly from then on. The same may be said of *Oak Bulger which made a very bad jump at the water. The veteran Mercator, stablemate of the winner, assumed the lead for the first two fences, and then was pulled up, the second time around after breaking down in the running. This was Mercator's first out in almost four years. The time of the race was 4:29 2-5, slower by more than 4 seconds than any brush race on this course in four years.

The Galsac Hurdle Handicap on Saturday, at 2 miles went to Clynmalra Stud's *Persepolis, a winner earlier in the week, and much at home on a field, which although on the firm side, was still a little deep on the turns. Lady Luck played a part in this finish, for rounding the last turn into the homestretch, Mrs. Corliss Sullivan's Quiet had taken the lead, only to hit the next to the last hurdle, and falling right in the path of H Hour. Marzani on H Hour had to take up but still ran over both the prostrate Quiet and Jockey McDonald. Jockey McDonald was not hurt. Quiet broke the small bone in back of each knee and it ruined whatever chance H Hour had. Coming to the last hurdle, *Le Buis Fleuri was in front by a small margin with *Persepolis alongside. In the run to the wire, *Persepolis outgamed the French horse to win by a length. Another 3 1-2 lengths

Friday, August 19

50th running of Beverwyck Chase 'Cap, abt. 2 mi., 3 & up. Purse, $7,500 added. Net value to winner, $6,000; 2nd: $1,500; 3rd: $750; 4th: $375. Winner: br. g. (7), by *Easton—Sun Fritters, by *Sun Briar. Trainer: R. W. Grant.

M. A. CUSHMAN'S *KIPPER won the allowance steeplechase at Saratoga on Aug. 18 and his stablemate, W. H. Lipscomb's Mercator faced the starter for the first time in over two years. Pictured above are (l. to r.): Kent Miller's Bannock Laddie and Jockey P. Winslow which finished 3rd; Jockey W. Leonard and Mercator which bolted from the course and H. R. Bain's *Oak Bugler with M. Fife up which placed. (N. Y. Racing Assn. Photo.)

Sun Bath added $6,000 to his earnings and completed the about 2 miles in 4:20 1-5, some 9 seconds slower than the record.

Saratoga's third week of 'chasing opened on Monday with a maiden hurdle race. Brown Mogul, despite his performance in running into a beacon on his last out, was made second choice in the betting, while Brookmeade Stable's Frenchtown, a 4-year-old which had shown a world of early speed on several occasions, went off favorite at 3 to 2. For a turn of the field, Frenchtown opened up a tremendous lead, in fact was still in front by several lengths going to the far turn. Meanwhile Brown Mogul, with jockey Albert Foote in the saddle, had run into the beacon on the far side, the first time around. Foote managed to stay in the saddle but it could be easily seen that he was on a rough mount. Rounding into the homestretch the last time, Brown Mogul, although lead going to the near turn, and held on down the far side the second time around, while Zimmerman on *Persepolis bided his time. Going to the last turn, Zimmerman turned him loose, and from there home it was just a question of how much. New Rule, hard held for more than a mile, closed ground in the last quarter to get up for 2nd, three and a half in front of Elmont, which passed tiring horses to take down 3rd money. An accident occurred in this race, when W. Seidler, a maiden jockey, was unseated at the first hurdle when his mount Deep Sea Tale bobbled.

Trainer William G. Jones had better luck the following day. Eight went postward in a 2-mile test over the big jumps. More rain the night before and in the morning, in addition to what had fallen the day before made the infield heavy and very slippery. Before the field had gone a half a mile, it was strung out in back, Big Bones got up to be 3rd, 2 1-2 lengths in front of Leche Hombre, while H Hour wound up in 5th place.

Farm to Farm

Sidney Culver

When Saratoga's second week of yearling sales opened it was strictly a buyer's market with a sharp decline in the demand. Frequently, the auctioneer had difficulty in obtaining an opening bid and at no time was the bidding as spirited as that of the first week.

William Ziegler, Jr. paid the highest price at Monday night's sale, $8,100 for a bay colt by First Fiddle—Grand Drive from the consignment of the High Acre Farm of Mrs. David A. Buckley.

John M. Schiff was runner up when he went $7,000 to secure the French-bred yearling by Mont-a-la-Queuse—Fondettes, by Kopl from consignment which John F. Flanagan, acting as agent, brought to this country. The 12 yearlings in the Flanagan consignment brought a total of $19,700 for an average of $1,642.

Only 27 yearlings out of the 49 catalogued were sold on Tuesday night. John W. Stanley, of Spring-side Stud, between Lexington and Versailles, withdrew his consignment of 12 yearlings because he thought they were selling below their worth.

Mrs. Marie Moore's colt by Jack High—Memoirs, by *Sir Gallahad III brought the high price of Tuesday's session. Oleg T. Dubasoff paid $7,100 for him.

The averages for the second week were as follows: Monday night 45 head brought $73,650—average $1,637. Tuesday night 27 head brought $55,350—average $2,046. Wednesday night 38 head brought $39,500—average $1,039.

Total for 9 sessions, 395 yearlings—$1,389,600—average $3,518. Average for 1948.

395 yearlings—$1,600,050—average $4,050.

Average for 1947.
317 yearlings—$1,746,350—average $5,509.

BROOKMEADE

Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade Farm in Upperville, Virginia, will stand three excellent stallions for the season of 1950.

By Jimmy, Jr. 1941, by *Pharomond II—Buginarug, by Blue Larkspur, will stand at $1,200 guaranteed live foal, and have a book of 25 mares. Mares are to be approved.

Star Beacon, b. 1939, by *Blenheim II—Fair Star, by *Wrack, will stand at $250 guaranteed live foal and have a book of about 35 mares. Mares are to be approved.

Grand Admiral, ch., 1944, by War Admiral—Grand Flame, by Grand Time, will stand at $750 to stakes winners and dams of stakes winners—guaranteed live foal. Mares are to be approved. Grand Admiral's racing career was cut short when he broke a sesamoid bone as a 2-year-old. Up until the time of his accident, Grand Admiral was well on his way to becoming one of the best of his year, having won the East Stakes (led all the way), and Saratoga Special, leading all the way and winning by a length from Loyal Legion, Khyber Pass, Phalanx, Gestapo. He finished 2nd in the Hopeful Stakes and 3rd in the Grand Union Hotel Stakes, etc. Grand Admiral entered the stud for the season of 1947 at Brookmeade and stood at Douglas M. Davis' High Hope Farm, Russell Cave Pike, Lexington, in 1948-49. It will be a boon to Eastern breeders to have him stand his 1950 season at Brookmeade.

Along with the *Mahmoud—Forever Yours, by Toro colt and the *Sir Gallahad III—The Wind, by The Porter filly which Mrs. Sloane purchased at Saratoga, there are 26 home-bred yearlings to be broken, plus a By Jimmy—Dutch Cut colt which was purchased at the Deering Howe dispersal sale. There are 9 sucklings at Brookmeade to be weaned but there are 21 Brookmeade owned sucklings in Kentucky. You don't have to be hit on the head to see that Brookmeade is a very busy place. It is quite obvious when you turn in the driveway. The fencing is in tip top condition, pastures mowed, limed and fertilized. The buildings are clean and white. The stallions barn has been newly painted, grass clipped and driveway edged. The whole atmosphere gives you that spick and span feeling. A great deal of credit must be acknowledged the whole Brookmeade organization, especially to Bill Ballenger, the farm manager.

LESLIE COMBS II

Leslie Combs II has announced the purchase (sum not disclosed) of *Ardan, brilliant French race horse and promising young sire.

Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane has a share in this stallion.

Dr. William McGee of Lexington will go abroad soon to pass on *Ardan's fertility and if the report is satisfactory, he will be shipped to Spendthrift Farm this fall.

*Ardan is an 8-year-old bay horse by Pharis—Adargatis, by Asterus. He was bred, raised and raced by Marcel Boussac from whom Mr. Combs made the purchase. *Ardan's dam, Adargatis, is from the immediate family of *La Troienne the noted Greentree producer.

*Ardan was successful in first class competition from 5 1-2 furlongs to a mile and 7 furlongs. Rated the second best 2-year-old of his generation, he became the high ranking 3-year-old and later the foremost handicap horse in France, winning the French Derby, the Prix de L'Arc de Triomphe, the Grand Prix de St. Cloud, the Grand Prix de Tremblay and the Coronation Cup.

CROUCH BROTHERS

There has been some speculation as to what will be done with the government owned stallions which are standing at different farms around the country. C. M. and H. M. Crouch, who stand *Barred UMBER and Fair Rochester at their Cherry Hill Farm near Aldie, Va., inform me that from October 31 to December 31 the Government will accept sealed bids on their stallions and they will be sold to the highest bidder. I suppose this is all right, however, it would seem a little fairer if the farmers who have been standing these stallions over the past years were given a chance to purchase them outright from the Government at a fair figure.

Besides *Barred UMBER and Fair Rochester the Messrs. Crouch have the young sire Witch Hunt gr., 1945 by Third Degree—Peradventure, by *Royal Minstrel.

This horse has the requisites to get good conformation individuals. Along with a young son of *Barred UMBER which will help with stud duties as soon as he is old enough, Cherry Hill will still be sought after by those who want the best in the hunting field.

HIGH HOPE

*Tourville, a 6-year-old bay horse by Tourbillon—Roselette, by Asterus (by *Teddy, one of the best broodmare sires in Europe—2nd dam by Swynford), is one of four stallions (Lovely Night—Vincentine—Pass Out) standing at Mrs. Marie A. Moore's High Hope Farm, The Plains, Va. *Tourville won stakes in France at 2 and 3. His dam produced 2 other winners and his second dam produced 4 winners and 3 stakes winners. One of the stakes winners is the colt Tornado (also by Tourbillon), considered one of the outstanding young sires in France, which gives a little bit of a reason why Mrs. Moore went to the hunt meets to get a stallion.

Henry Knight has the only other Tourbillon horse here in the U. S. A., *Goya II which stands at his Alma-hurst farm in Kentucky.

The farm hands were putting field cured alfalfa in one of the hay lofts, at High Hope Farm, which was the greenest, most leafy well cured hay you could hope to find anywhere. Apparently *Tourville thinks it tastes as good as it looks for he has put on weight and is in fine condition.

Most breeders use a pony or a pony type stallion as a teaser. Not so at High Hope. Galerius, by Pompey out of Omayya by *Sir Gallahad III has this chore. He is a big bay 5-year-old and the only son of Pompey standing in Virginia. He fell and crippled his hock during early training at Belmont Park and was acquired by Doc. Robert Humphrey. He stands 17 hands and is the most nimble big horse in a paddock Doc. has ever seen.

North Wales Mare Brings $26,000

Chrysler Sale Highlights Dispersals Which Include Thoroughbreds of H. B. Delman, Old Elm Stock Farms and Old Glory Farms

Chris Wood, Jr.

The highlight of the week's venue came with the dispersal of the broodmares from Walter P. Chrysler, Jr.'s North Wales Stud. This consignment of 46 mares, 31 with foal at foot, brought out many new personages, who heretofore had been conspicuous by their absence. The lot consisted of the stallions Ramillies and *Chrysler II, a lone weanling, and the 46 mares. Bidding was exceedingly brisk for the entire group.

Caltha, a 4-year-old mare by *Bahram—Marsh Marigold, and a winner of the Belmont Park Fashion Stakes, was the most attractive of the lot. Currently in foal to *Goya, the young matron topped the sale when a bid of $26,000 from Abram S. Hewitt obtained her. An active bidder all evening, the White Post, Va., owner-breeder also purchased the French import, *Tourmente for $23,500, and bids of $16,000 and $10,000 brought him Mother India and Strange Device, respectively. When the Hewitt yearlings were sold the preceding week, it was stated by Announcer Humphrey Finney that Mr. Hewitt was retiring from the Thoroughbred breeding business and was entering the government service. His purchases came as a surprise to many, and it can only be assumed that he was acting as agent for undisclosed buyers. For the past two years Mr. Hewitt has been retained as a breeding and purchasing consultant for the North Wales Stud. His bidding opponent for *Tourmente was John D. Hertz, the Chicago, Ill., sportsman who topped the filly prices for the year when he obtained a Bull Lea—Alpoise youngster from the Ernst consignment last week for $25,000. In the duel for the French mare, Mr. Hertz went as high as $23,000 and stopped when Mr. Hewitt's $500 raise was announced. Mr. Hertz made other bids during the evening, but never a final raise.

Virginia lost a promising young stallion when David O. Evans of Hillside N. J., made a final bid of $23,000 for Ramillies. This was not unexpected, as many Jerseyites sent mares to the stallion this season, and he was quite popular with breeders in that rapidly advancing Thoroughbred area. The purchase pleased Eugene Mori, president of Garden State Park, as he had privately mentioned the night before at the New York Turf Writer's dinner, that he hoped some one from his state would be able to stand the 10-year-old son of *Blenheim—Risky.

Upperville, Va.'s, Brookmeade Stable added to its matriarchate when Mrs. Sloane obtained the young mare Riskless, by *Bahram—Reckless, for $8,100 from the North Wales dispersal, and the 3-year-old, Flower Bed, by *Beau Pere—Boudoir II from the H. B. Delman dispersal on Thursday morning. The filly went for a bid of $15,500, a figure that topped the morning dispersals of Mr. Delman's Thoroughbred holdings, Old Elm Stock Farms and Eugene Flagg's Old Glory Farms.

Cross-Country Riding In America

Fox-hunting Adapted To This Country Because It Is In Its Nature Thoroughly Popular and Requires Nerve and Courage

Henry Cabot Lodge

The club which hunts in the neighborhood of Boston, by an unlucky accident, bears the meaningless and inappropriate name of "The Myopia." The club-house and kennels are on the Gibney farm, which lies just within the borders of the town of Hamilton adjoining the town of Wenham in Essex county, and are about thirty miles from Boston. The Myopia has two packs, one of beagles and one of foxhounds, each numbering some thirteen or fourteen couple. The beagles are used for drags, the hounds exclusively for foxes. Now and again the beagles are taken to Dedham for a meet, or the hounds to Southboro', where the country is more open and where a good run is probable.

Most of the hunting of the Myopia Club, however, is at Hamilton. Drags are run there with the beagles in early autumn, and by the middle of October the hounds get out for foxes, the two packs giving four or five runs every week. Until November the fields are large, often numbering forty or fifty riders at the start; and these large and increasing fields are one of the best features of the Myopia hunt. Only a small proportion of them, of course, go straight from start to finish; but every one enjoys it, the interest in the sport is constantly spreading, and more people every year take to riding, with all the advantages which that best of manly exercises implies.

The Essex country is very different from that of Geneseo. It is a region of rolling hills with almost endless stretches of rough pasture, broken by wide swamps and large masses of pine forest. The galloping over these pasture is exceedingly fine and very attractive. The fences, if the bull will be pardoned, are for the most part loose stone walls. The ditches are few, the rails more numerous and of all heights, and the walls are everywhere. These stone walls tumble pretty easily, but they also throw a horse and cut him severely far too often to be pleasant. In height they range from three to four feet, averaging about three feet six inches, which is a good jump in stone. Now and then you will meet with a wall of more than four feet, and in at least one instance a member of the club jumped a heavy wall four feet eight inches high, which is better than five feet of rails. Such jumps as this, however, are luckily not common; most of the walls are very moderate in size and much lower than the fences of either Geneseo or Long Island, and therefore all the better for hunting. The difficulties in the Hamilton country arise from the roughness of the ground, which at times is rocky and broken, and from the bad take-offs and uncertain landings. One is obliged to jump constantly from a stand, out of all sorts of awkward corners, and very often with the chance of landing in a bog or on a heap of loose stones on the other side. A rider at Hamilton ought to have a horse with a good turn of speed, and not afraid of four feet and a half or five feet at a pinch; but above all, he needs a strong, handy, clever horse, with good sense and a cool head. If you are mounted on an excitable animal, however brilliant, the chances are that you will cut his knees, and perhaps get a bad fall in the bargain. With a mount of the right kind, however, no safer and pleasanter country can be found to ride over, and this is a great advantage in every way. The land is not fertile, but the upland pastures, thickly sprinkled with goldenrod and heather, are full of color and beauty. The gray ledges and boulders rise here and there, covered with lichens, and stand out boldly against the dark background of the pines; while every now and then, from the top of some hill, you catch a glimpse of the sea glittering in the sunlight or darkening beneath the cloud shadows.

There are few more delightful experiences in every way than to go out with the hounds early in the morning. The meet is at daybreak; the field is, of course, small, and wholly made up of those who really love the sport. You ride away from the kennels in the gray dawn. Everything is still, there is a light hoarfrost on the earth, perhaps a thin mist hanging over the pastures. When the covert is reached, the hounds are thrown in, and there can be no prettier sight than to see them working over the damp ground, where the scent is sure to lie well. The air bites a little, the horses are at their best, and nothing can be more exhilarating or more full of healthy and honest pleasure.

The coverts at Hamilton and Wenham contain plenty of foxes, despite the local sportsmen, but they are also very extensive. The pack ought to be double its present size, and even then it would be extremely difficult to get a fox into the open for a run. Reynard knows very well what is best for him. He slips along the edges of the woods, plunges into a dense thicket, comes out on the other side, skirts the covert again, finally crosses a swamp, and very probably escapes. Now and then he will break from one covert to another; sometimes he takes boldly to the open, and then comes the best of all things—a sharp run on a burning scent. Although the Myopia hounds do not kill very often, there is almost always plenty of scent in the neighborhood of the coverts, and the field is sure to have one or two quick bursts at an early meet. When the hour is later, especially if the sun shines, the chances for any kind of a run are diminished. Yet, with all the drawbacks of waiting and blank days, the Essex hunts are as enjoyable as any man could wish. The fresh, keen air, and the brisk, quick gallop with plenty of jumping, start the blood and make one feel the "wild joy of living" more than anything in the world. The foxhunt takes the edge off the drag, it must be confessed, but it is the genuine fox-hunt which gives a charm to the sport in Geneseo and Hamilton, and promises a long life to it in both places.

The farmers of Hamilton and Wenham have not yet begun to follow the hounds or to breed hunters, but this will come before very long. They have received the club with the greatest good-nature and with much kindly interest. The welcome has been so hospitable that the club has adopted the custom of annual field sports. Small prizes are offered for running and jumping and for farmers' horses; there is a lunch spread under the trees in front of the club-house, and in the evening there is a dance at the town hall. Nothing could show the need of such simple and wholesome amusements more than their popularity and success at Hamilton. These annual sports bring together two or three thousand people from all the country round, and there is always a great deal of fun and enjoyment. The club management in this, as in other respects, has been wise and simple, and there is every reason to believe that the sport which it fosters is now a permanent thing.

The object of this, as well as of the preceding article, I suppose, is something more than merely to give a description of certain hunt-clubs. They have been written, indeed, to little purpose if they do not serve in some slight manner, at least, to dissipate certain prejudices which have been felt against riding to hounds in this country, and which have been disseminated if not bred by the press merely through lack of information, and not at all from any real ill-will. These prejudices or misapprehensions usually find expression in slurs on the sport and on those who engage in it, and in much fun and laughing at the expense of the members of the clubs.

Ivory Rangers Defeat Texas Comets

In the Fourth Match of the Season With
The San Antonio Polo Team the Rangers
Win Their Third Victory By Score of 10-8

Kenneth S. Drake

The fourth match of the season between the Ivory Rangers and the San Antonio, Texas Comets was an event of Wednesday, August 10, under lights at the Ivory Bowl. Tonight's game resulted in the third victory out of a possible four for the Rangers by a score of 10-8 for the 4 thrilling chukkers. The defeated Texan lineup was the same as in the three previous matches with Bill Barry, Dutch Evinger, and Orville Rice at No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3 respectively. Hank Evinger, the Ivory Rangers' regular No. 3 was conspicuous by his absence (Hank was a member of the Pontiac Chiefs team playing in Milwaukee Aug. 10), and was replaced in the 1st chukker by Walter Stevens (who had also participated in the preliminary event), and in the last 3 chukkers by visiting Juan Rodriguez of the Oak Brook Polo Club, Hinsdale, Illinois. Rodriguez's appearance in this game was delayed one chukker because of his late arrival in the city. Just before the opening quarter, announcer John McGillis informed the fans that Rodriguez was en route to Detroit from Chicago by plane. The Argentine "goucho" had participated in the 2nd game of the National Twenty Goal Championships that afternoon at Oak Brook. He was by necessity late in getting started to fulfill the guest engagement in Detroit. A few minutes after the opening, Rodriguez stepped out of Paul Butler's twin engine Beechcraft at the Detroit City Airport and was rushed to Ivory Field to participate in the match.

This game marked the return of Jack Ivory who played the No. 2 spot. Jack has been benched for the last 2 months because of his unfortunate accident at Oak Brook in June. The blond 6-goal Ivory was wearing an especially constructed harness to protect his ailing shoulder. His popularity as a polo player was confirmed by the applause and cheers from the crowd when the lineups were announced. Stefani, who starred with 6 of the Rangers' 10 goals, rode his usual No. 1 position very effectively. This Ivory-Texas match was one of the closest and hardest played games of the season at Ivory Bowl.

The 1st chukker ended 1-0 in favor of the Comets. Barry, the popular Texan, tallied the only score. The quarter was played offensively to a high degree by both teams. Stefani had one close shot which almost resulted in a score for the Rangers but failed to be good as Dutch Evinger made a spectacular save.

The 2nd period was a mallet duel between Stefani who really got going and Dutch Evinger, the Comets' No. 2 star. Evinger was the first to score early in the chukker to give the Comets a lead of 2-0. Stefani promptly retaliated with a goal. Evinger accounted for his second score in this quarter with a little help from his opponent, Stefani. Evinger's ball was headed goalward but wide. Stefani, in an effort to save, intercepted with his mallet at an angle which banked the ball in direct line with the goal as the defending team looked on helplessly. In the next play, Stefani as if to redeem himself took possession of the ball and galloped goalward only to lose his chances by the clever saves of the Texans. This action repeated itself almost as though rehearsed. Suddenly he had an opening and succeeded in scoring with a long shot from the center of field. Following this action, Jack Ivory took a nasty spill—falling on his right shoulder (not the injured one) but remounted and continued to play the few remaining seconds of the quarter. The chukker ended 3-2 in favor of the Comets.

After half time the game really began. Rodriguez made his only score of the evening by negotiating a free shot given as a penalty against the Texas trio to tie the score 3-3. The Stefani-Ivory combination started to click resulting in three goals for Stefani and one for Ivory. Barry of Texas carried the honors for the Comets by chalking up 4 goals—the highest number for any one player. The chukker was to quote announcer McGillis "a ding dong polo game." When the bell rang to end the quarter, the score was 7-7. During the tit-tat scoring, Barry came "a cropper"; however he was not injured and continued to play.

It was in the final chukker that Ivory began to show some of the form which qualifies him as a 6-goal player and endears him to the hearts of polo fans. Jack chalked up two tallies in this period, moving the Detroit team into the lead they never lost. Barry scored the only point in this quarter for the Comets. The game was tight until the very end. Orville Rice played a wonderful back position throughout the game—he was always there to receive the passes from his team mates. Despite the hard playing efforts of Rice, Barry, and Evinger, they could not stop Stefani who scored in the last second of the game. The match ended 10-8 in favor of the Ivory Rangers.

The 4-chukker preliminary match between the Detroit Juniors and the Franklin Hills Polo Club for the 1st half was filled with action and interest. Wendell Smith at No. 1 and George Benjamin at No. 3 each scored one point in the 1st quarter for Franklin Hills. The trio from Franklin Hills held the Juniors scoreless in this period, and it appeared that the undefeated Juniors would lose their first game. At the half the score was tied 3-3. Bob Peterson for the Juniors scored early, followed by 2 tallies from the mallet of Walter Stevens. Benjamin of Franklin Hills succeeded in scoring once. Following the half, the Franklin Hills team fell apart while the juniors continued to pour it on. During the 3rd period, Jack Stefani went into action and accounted for 3 goals. Peterson tallied one and negotiated a free shot given as a penalty against Franklin Hills. Stevens added another goal ending the quarter 9-3. The Franklin Hills team which was blank in the third period added "injury to insult" when Tom Young at No. 2 took a bad spill and for a few minutes failed to recover. Much to the delight of the crowd Young remounted to continue the game and scored, giving the Franklin Hills club a total of 4. Walter Stevens, captain of the Juniors, negotiated a free shot in the final chukker making a total of 10 goals for his team.

Milwaukee Wins 20-Goal Tournament

Wisconsin Polo Team Defeats Oak Brook 10-8
And Detroit Ivory Polo Club 9-8
To Become National Champions

Harry Coleman

The Milwaukee Polo Club, playing in the National 20-Goal Championship Tournament, defeated Oak Brook in the semi-final matches and then whipped the Detroit Ivory Polo Club in the final. The strong Milwaukeeans had a 20-goal rating in the semi-finals and a 19-goal rating against Detroit in the games played August 10 and 14 at Hinsdale, Ill.

In the second round of the National 20-Goal polo tournament, played Wednesday afternoon, August 10, at Oak Brook Polo Club, Hinsdale, Illinois, a 15-goal Oak Brook team lost 10-8 to a 20-goal Milwaukee Polo Club team spear-headed by 9-goal George Oliver. It was anybody's game up to the last five minutes of the last period when the score stood 8-8. Game statistics tell the story only in part.

Milwaukee opened the 1st period with a rush and was leading 2-0, when Arthur Perkins, father of 8-goal Peter, hit his stride. To polo oldsters the playing of Arthur on this particular day was reminiscent of a similar day in 1924 when, as a member of the Midwick Polo Club, he was on the team that won the trophy for which he was now playing 25 years later. The score was Midwick 16, Rockaway 3. Arthur scored 5 goals he "believes". Today he was playing the same No. 3 position that the trophy bearing his name indicates he played in 1924. Today he didn't score. He didn't have time. He was too busy setting up plays for his team-mates; worrying George Oliver; turning the play at all parts of the field, and saving at the goal. The 1949 National 20-Goal trophy won't bear the name of Arthur Perkins, but in the years to come when this game is recounted, as it will be, the name of Mr. Perkins will be part of the legend.

On paper Oak Brook didn't have a chance. In the game the score was tied 5 times beginning at 4-all in the 3rd period. Until the 6th period was well under way neither team held more than a one goal advantage for longer than two minutes consecutively.

For the winners George Oliver lived up to his 9-goal rating by his accurate and hard-hit shots and overall field generalship. Pedro Silvero at No. 1 led by scoring half of his teams goals. Zenith Colt, although shaken by an upset in the 3rd period, played steadily and accurately. Robert Uhlein, Milwaukee captain, at back, played hard for 45 minutes and broke up many near-certain Oak Brook tallies.

For the losers, 7-goal Gabriel Gracida, who had arrived from Mexico City to warm-up for the U. S.—Mexico series, shared scoring honors with Leo Hulseman with 3 goals, Juan Rodriguez, on offense particularly, kept Oak Brook a constant scoring threat. The brief reference to Arthur Perkins in the foregoing is necessarily condensed.

Four Texans, representing Detroit Ivory Polo Club, lost in the finals of the National 20-Goal Championship Tournament, to Milwaukee Polo Club, represented by one North and three Latin Americans. The score was 9-8; played August 14, at Oak Brook Polo Club, Hinsdale, Ill.

The inter-state-international complexion of the finals was not entirely premeditated. It was brought about, at least in part, by the vagaries of certain players; the death of four horses; and the sportsmanship of G. R. "Doc" Williams, captain of Detroit, who refused to win by default—and lost by a fault. Assuming that the discovery, by Milwaukee, that playing to the near side of left-handed Williams slowed him up, can be considered a fault.

Fifteen seconds after the throw-in, Doc Williams, No. 1 for Detroit, scored on a long shot from Evinger. It was the last time Doc Williams was unhampered by Milwaukee, except for a brief moment in the 4th period when he picked up a long pass from Barry, to score. W. Gracida, who replaced George Oliver at No. 3 for Milwaukee, due to the latter's inability to finish the tournament, scored less than a minute later on a No. 4 penalty. He repeated in 90 seconds without benefit of a free shot. Barry tied the score in the closing minute of the 1st period with a back-hand angle shot as the ball was bobbing along the goal line.

The 2nd period was scoreless, due largely to the efforts of Barry and Evinger who kept the ball in Milwaukee territory or close to mid-field.

The Mexicans, or rather Milwaukee, scored twice in the 3rd. A. Herrera, alternate for the visiting Mexican team and replacement for Zenith Colt who played the 1st round, tallied two minutes after the opening. His teammate, Gracida, followed with his third goal a minute late.

In the closing minutes before intermission, Evinger, prancing behind the Milwaukee goal as the seven players drove the ball inches to and fro, suddenly stepped out and whipped it across for the third Detroit score.

Doc Williams got away for a moment after 3 1-2 minutes of the 4th period to pick up a long pass from Barry to score with one of his disconcerting left-handed shots. Evinger, riding under his pony's neck for 50 yards, put Detroit in the lead, for a minute. Herrera, with one of the longest shots of the game, tied it up again at 5-5, with two minutes remaining in the 4th.

It was all Milwaukee in the 5th. Gracida added 2 more with Silvero adding another. The second of Gracida's scores was made after the bell sounded ending the period, it was directed loudly by every individual within screaming distance, with the possible exception of the two umpires who had whistles in their mouths; which they blew as the ball went between the posts.

Detroit made a desperate bid for victory in the last period. Evinger scored on a No. 3 penalty 3 seconds after the throw-in. A minute later, York Ratliff, who had been playing perfect defense as back, suddenly took the offense at midfield and in 2 long hard drives, scored. Four minutes later he repeated, but it was too late. In the interim, Gracida, scored his sixth—and the winning—goal. With the score 9-8, and two-thirds of the last period elapsed, Milwaukee froze its defense and kept the game on ice.

NORDLICHT OFFSPRING MAY RACE

Lt. Colonel F. E. Young, Jr., Washington attorney, received a word this week from his associate counsel in New York to the effect that the Board of Stewards of the Jockey Club has approved the issuance of a racing permit, which he will receive in a few days, for his filly by Nordlicht out of Reno Kid. Such a permit will permit this offspring of the most famous German sire ever to have been imported to this country to be raced under Jockey Club Rules under the provision of Rule 55 B that has been published in the Racing Calendar. Nordlicht won the German Derby in 1944. He is by Oleander—Nereide, Graf Isolani or Laland.

POLO'S BIG SERIES

Devereux Milburn, Jr., tournament chairman of the United States Polo Association, is able to announce this week the tournament draw for the best calibre polo matches to be held anywhere for many a year. Mr. Milburn has lined up teams from the Argentine and from Mexico which will start a series of games with the best American teams for the National Open Championship on International Field at Meadow Brook this Sunday, August 28. The first game will be between the Hurricanes, 1948 defending champions, and the Detroit Templeton team. Bostwick Field, which broke the Argentine's winning streak of 5 straight games against America's best players, will put its team into action against the winners of the first game. The Argentines play Chicago's team on September 4, while the Mexican International team will be seen playing at Meadow Brook on September 11.

The finals of this series, which marks the biggest polo comeback yet made, will be held September 18, at International Field. The Hurricanes have L. Sheerin, Roberto Cavanagh, Cecil Smith, and Stephen Sanford in their line-up which will play William Barry, Al Parsells, Mike Phipps and Winston Guest as the Detroit Templetons. Bostwick Field will be represented by G. H. Bostwick, C. C. Combs, A. L. Corey, Jr., and Devereux Milburn, Jr. The Argentine combination, that made a clean sweep of their matches in Chicago, will have playing Juan Reynal, Julio and Carlos Menditeguy and Horatio Castilla. Chicago will include Gus White, Jr., Del Carroll, George Oliver, and Stanley Taylor; while last year's international Mexican team will again be made up of the Gracida brothers, Gabriel, Guillermo, Alejandra and Ruben.

WARRENTON'S FIFTY YEARS

The Warrenton Show this year is celebrating its 50th anniversary. Its inception was in 1899, when a group of public spirited citizens, among whom were Major McIntire, Henry Hutton, Major Barry and several horsemen got together with the idea of doing something for the county.

There were breeding, harness, saddle, and hunter classes. In one of the driving classes a horse dumped the driver, dashed wildly around the ring and finally through a picket gate into the lane, leaving cart and harness jammed against the gate posts.

John Dulaney's Kathleen was outstanding in hunter classes, and perhaps there never was a more consistent performer than Julian Morris' David Grey who later won at the great Dublin Show in Ireland, and also in England.

Courty Smith's Ogonquit and Be Quick were favorites too, and John Hoove's Scotchman was a consistent winner, as were Jim Maddux's Grey Cap and "Ulie" Benner's King Edward.

Mrs. Shaw (now Lady Astor) was successful with her Queen Bee, while in the saddle classes Mrs. Allen Potts was outstanding with Willow King and Batchelor, while Robin Adair often carried off the blue under Mrs. Blair Johnson's able handling, as did Irish Rose with Mabel Flynn up.

Barry, bred by Julian C. Keith, was purchased from the Virginia circuit by Rigan McKinny who changed his name to Black Watch. This gelding won many high-jumping contests both in this country and Canada. It was extraordinary to watch this little horse approach the poles, above which you couldn't even see his ears, and hurtle himself triumphantly over the top bar, often around 7'-0" high.

The quality of the exhibits too has improved, particularly in the pony classes. This is due in large measure to the standards set by the Rives Brothers of Keswick, of Mrs. Ellwood Keith of Charlottesville and of Mrs. Hamilton's Dunnottar Pony Farm.

Much of the success of the show was due to its managers, Charley Smith, Blair Johnson, and, later, Frank Gaskins. Many persons have served the show but only one has worked for it continuously during the whole 50 years—Hamilton Campbell.—Emmen Kay

GENESEE VALLEY

Avon Downs, the newly reconstructed race track and show grounds at historic Avon Springs, at Avon, N. Y., will be opened officially for the 34th annual Genesee Valley Breeders' Association Colt Show on September 2 and 3. This unique racing plant is owned by a corporation composed of local Thoroughbred breeders and farmers.

In pre-Civil war days and later in the gay '90s, Avon Springs was quite a Spa and its race track a flourishing sporting center. There was a huge hotel at the Springs, and the Livingston House and the Avon Inn in the village were centers of resort social life. Although the healing sulphur waters of the springs may not come in vogue again, certainly Avon Downs is a delightful setting for horse show or race meeting and should gain great popularity.

The well known Breeders' Show to be held September 2 and 3 features the get of the stallions maintained by The Jockey Club at Lookover Stallion Station, and is a fascinating event to anyone interested in breeding race horses and/or hunters. The Jockey Club has made an innovation this year and is making a permanent moving picture record of the horse breeding activities in the Genesee Valley; this film has been in preparation since the first foals were dropped during the spring.—A. ## Chronicle Quiz Answers

1. The fence must be 2 feet high on the take-off side, the water 2 feet deep and 12 feet wide.
2. The teams change sides after the scoring of each goal.
3. "Free generation" is a term used to designate any generation on the sire's side or the dam's side in the pedigree of an animal, farther back than the immediate parents, in which a particular ancestor does not appear. Counting the number of "free generations" between the appearance of the name of a given ancestor in a pedigree is a convenient method for evaluating the degree of inbreeding to that ancestor.
4. A horse is said to have been cut down when he is injured in a race by the feet of another horse.
5. The board of stewards at a race meeting which, among other functions, takes disciplinary action.
6. In general the Welsh type is more suitable, having a longer neck, more sloping shoulders and more prominent withers. In Wales the ponies are used for riding, in the Shetland Islands for carrying packs.
